

Faiths Unite: Visions for Transformative Climate Action

The Interfaith Liaison Committee welcomes friends from around the world to learn, discuss and explore climate action in the run up to what should have been COP26. We welcome members from different religious communities, alongside scientists and policymakers, to meet and share their visions for faith-based climate action in 2020.

A 3-part interactive online series organised by the Interfaith Liaison Committee to the UNFCCC
Every Tuesday, October 27th-
November 10th

Online Event #1 The World We Want Register here

27 OCTOBER 2020
9:00-10:30 AM GMT
10:00-11:30 AM CET
4:00-5:30 PM EST

Our first online session will provide a space to explore the response offered by different faith traditions to the current climate crisis and COVID-19. The discussion will focus on how these perspectives might help us to navigate through this precarious moment.

This interactive event is in English.

Online Event #2 COP26 – Ramp Up Ambition! Register here

3 NOVEMBER 2020
4:00-5:30 PM GMT
5:00-6:30 PM CET
11:00-12:30 AM EST

Our second online session will bring together representatives from the scientific, policy and faith communities engaged on climate change. This will be an interdisciplinary discussion on the agenda for COP26 and what this means for climate action now.

This interactive event is in English with Spanish translation.

Online Event #3 Hope For The Future Register here

10 NOVEMBER 2020
4:00-6:30 PM GMT
5:00-7:30 PM CET
11:00-13:30 AM EST

As we reach the time of what should have been the COP26 in Glasgow, our final session will offer a space for dialogue on faith-based climate action. We will share and reflect on stories of hope in action from faith communities around the world. The session will offer interactive opportunities for participants, facilitating connections and raising motivation for the year ahead.

This interactive event is in English with Spanish translation.

